

Hazuki Kataoka

Kamishibai Author and Storyteller

You can be an instant storyteller with Hazuki's books!
It's easy and fun.

Storycard Theater® Turns Reading into Storytelling

Storycard Theater books are based on the traditional Japanese kamishibai (paper theater) format, which uses large cards with artwork on the front and text on the back. This unique design allows you to read to a group of children while showing them the pictures.

Momotaro the Peach Boy

Retold by Hazuki Kataoka & David Battino; Illustrated by Mario Uribe
Momotaro is one of the most famous Japanese folktales. A boy mysteriously born from a peach joins three downtrodden animals to stand up for the people of his village.

Themes: Courage, teamwork, generosity.
Bilingual English/Japanese. 12 cards/24 pages.

2004 Dr. Toy Award Winner

Jack & the Beanstalk

Retold by Hazuki Kataoka & David Battino; Illustrated by Kazumi Verkler
Jack & the Beanstalk reflects humanity's ancient fascination with touching the sky. Typically, though, Jack is portrayed as a sneaky thief. Our retelling follows one of the lesser-known storylines, presenting Jack as a compassionate figure who rescues the harp and hen from the cruel giant. Themes: Sharing, courage, altruism.

12 cards/24 pages. 2004 Dr. Toy Award Winner

The Moon Princess (Kaguya-Hime)

Retold by Hazuki Kataoka & David Battino; Illustrated by Kazumi Verkler
The Moon Princess is based on the oldest written tale in Japan.

A baby girl magically born from a bamboo stalk grows into a beautiful woman just in three months. All the rich and powerful men in the country ask to marry her but she says no. Why?

Because she has a secret.... Themes: independence, loyalty, caring
Bilingual English/Japanese. 12 cards/24 pages.

2008 Parents' Choice Approved Award Winner

2010 Storytelling World Resource Award Winner

2010 National Parenting Publications Award Winner
